

Judging Others

Lesson focus: Jesus commands us to love one another, which includes accepting and caring for each other, no matter what. All that we do should be aimed to please the Lord.

Passage: Matthew 18:21-35

Parable of the unforgiving servant

21 Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, how many times should I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Should I forgive as many as seven times?"

22 Jesus said, "Not just seven times, but rather as many as seventy-seven times.[a]

23 Therefore, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. 24 When he began to settle accounts, they brought to him a servant who owed him ten thousand bags of gold.[b] 25 Because the servant didn't have enough to pay it back, the master ordered that he should be sold, along with his wife and children and everything he had, and that the proceeds should be used as payment. 26 But the servant fell down, kneeled before him, and said, 'Please, be patient with me, and I'll pay you back.' 27 The master had compassion on that servant, released him, and forgave the loan.

28 "When that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him one hundred coins.[c] He grabbed him around the throat and said, 'Pay me back what you owe me.'

29 "Then his fellow servant fell down and begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I'll pay you back.' 30 But he refused. Instead, he threw him into prison until he paid back his debt.

31 "When his fellow servants saw what happened, they were deeply offended. They came and told their master all that happened. 32 His master called the first servant and said, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you appealed to me. 33 Shouldn't you also have mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you?' 34 His master was furious and handed him over to the guard responsible for punishing prisoners, until he had paid the whole debt.

35 "My heavenly Father will also do the same to you if you don't forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

Matthew 7: 1-2

1 "Don't judge, so that you won't be judged. You'll receive the same judgment you give.

2 Whatever you deal out will be dealt out to you."
